Men's Shoes

The best is always the cheapest tho some times when buying they look high. The best sometimes disappoints us, but the cheap ones will fool you most every time. If you feel you must skimp a little, take it out of your clothes or underwear, but never out of your shoes. Buy the very best every time for your feet. We decided two years ago to buy every time the very best things possible for the feet. We are today showing, both in leather and rubber goods, the best quality of shoes made in the world. We mean this—every word of it, and we declare to you that a man's fine shoe to retail at $3.50, $4, $5 and $6, are the Walkovers and Nettletons. If there is a work shoe from $3.50 to $7 that will wear longer, stay softer and nearer dry than Menzies we don't know it. These Menzies people call their boys' shoes, "American Boy" they are the same high class wear resisters as the men's. They cost you $2, $2.50, $3 and $3.50 in boys; we have all these new. You will have to have them when it rains.

Kentucky Democracy Owes Senatorship to Beckham.

With presidential politics out of the way, Kentucky democrats are going to be particularly interested in the nomination of a United States Senator to succeed Senator Bradley next August. The names of a number of distinguished members of the party have been mentioned in connection with the nomination, but to our mind but one man should be considered by the democrats of Kentucky for this particular place. That man is J. C. W. Beckham, who was deprived of a seat in the Senate by the foulest treachery ever perpetrated upon a nominee of the democratic party. He was the rightful owner of the seat which Bradley is soon to vacate. It was stolen from him by the rankest sort of political burglary, and it is up to the democrats to make what amends they can to the man who was so grievously wronged.

So, far, Gov. Beckham has not said whether or not he will be a candidate for the nomination next year. He should not be long left in a state of indecision on the subject. The democrats of Kentucky should demand, and do, that they be given the privilege to right the wrong, to restore what was his, and to go on record as eternally opposed to such underhanded methods in politics as were used to compass his defeat by the legislature. The democrats of Kentucky want the opportunity to redeem their fair 'scutcheon which was so basely dragged in the mire by the four traitors who elected Bradley, and on every hand is heard the cry that Beckham is the man for Senator next year, and, the only one who should receive consideration at this hour.

Aside from other considerations it is peculiarly fitting that a man who stood in the forefront of Kentucky democrats as first, foremost and always favoring the nomination of Governor Wilson for the presidency, should be the one who is the logical candidate of the Kentucky democracy for the senatorship. In such a position, he would be of inestimable worth to his state and his constituents. Talk is heard that he is to be considered for a cabinet position, which proves the esteem in which he is held by the president-elect and the closeness of the relations existing between them.

There should be no question of their course to all fair-minded democrats. But one honorable channel is open to them. Beckham must be given what was stolen from him. We are satisfied that an overwhelming majority of Lincoln county democrats see this matter as we do.

When Woodrow Wilson comes in to his own, there's one young man, all his friends in Kentucky hope he will remember in a most substantial and honorary way. That man is Henry Breckinridge, of Lexington, the pioneer in the president-elect's cause in this state, and one of the brainiest young democrats in the Commonwealth. Some day he will represent the old Ashland district, so often honored by men of his name in Congress, and there's no telling what height a young man of his genius and capacity will finally attain.

Old in Age But Modern in Ways

The FIRST NATIONAL BANK, of Stanford is the oldest institution in this section of the state, having been organized March 9, 1854. A bank to have stood the panics that have occurred in the past 58 years must be all right. This bank today is stronger and better than it ever was.

While old in age it is modern in methods. Our patrons, and they are many, will testify to the fact that we take care of them in a manner both pleasing and satisfactory.

Your patronage is respectfully asked. Remember our pledge of courteous treatment and honorable dealings.
